

KRIYA YOGA PILGRIMAGE TO SOUTH INDIA

January 2 to January 19, 2009

with M. G. Satchidananda and Durga Ahlund

Due to the overwhelming interest in the January 2008 pilgrimages, M. G. Satchidananda and Durga Ahlund will lead another group of Kriya Yoga students on a pilgrimage to sacred sites, ashrams and places of interest in South India, including places associated with Babaji's life. It will be an unforgettable experience in the homeland of yoga, which will inspire you and enable you to appreciate the rich cultural tapestry, which has given birth to Babaji's Kriya Yoga. This is a new itinerary, which will interest previous year's pilgrims as well.

In a pilgrimage, one seeks to come close to the Divine by visiting, worshipping and meditating in sacred places which provide a terrestrial "doorway" to the infinite and the absolute. One may easily experience the "Divine Presence" in such places, which have been sanctified by the spiritual practices of many yogis and saints. During this pilgrimage we will visit a variety of such places. There will be group practice of Kriya Yoga at least twice daily to deepen your experience.

We have scheduled this pilgrimage to coincide with the time of year when the weather is the most pleasant: warm but not too hot. The hotels have also been carefully selected for their Western style comfort and facilities. Ground transportation will be in a comfortable air-conditioned bus.

ITINERARY January 2 to 19, 2009

January 2, Friday evening: Depart Montreal and fly to Frankfurt, on Lufthansa Airlines, then onto Chennai, India. Or, if leaving from Europe, depart January 3, 2009.

January 4, Sunday early a.m. arrive in Chennai. Sunday morning: arrive in Chennai (Madras), south India. Stay at the 4 star Hotel Shelter in Mylapore. Rest till the late afternoon then visit the nearby Ramakrishna Monastery and meditation hall established by Swami Vivekananda.. Also visit Kapaleeswarar Shiva Temple in Mylapore where Saint Thirugnana-sambandar resurrected a young girl by singing a devotional hymn. This area is known to be the prior residence of Thiruvallavar, a disciple of Agastyar, and who authored the widely read and translated Tamil text named Thirukkural. Mylapore takes its name from the Tamil word for peacock, mayil, as Parvati, in one of her incarnations, lived here as a peacock.

Monday January 5, travel to Pondicherry, until recently a French colony. In ancient times it was known as Vedapuri, as Agastyar established it as an educational center. Sri Aurobindo came here seeking asylum from the British and established the Aurobindo Ashram. Stay at the Hotel Ananda Inn.

January 6, Tuesday, Visit Sri Aurobindo Ashram and samadhi shrine where Sri Aurobindo and the Mother are laid to rest. In the morning visit and meditate in the upstairs rooms where the Mother and Sri Aurobindo lived in seclusion for many years.

January 7, Wednesday: Visit the Chidambaram temple of Nataraja (Dancing Shiva). Participate in a special puja conducted especially for us.

January 8, Thursday. Visit Auroville. Meditate in the Matri Mandir dome.

January 9, Friday, travel to Tiruvannamalai. Stay 4 nights at the new deluxe Hotel Arunai Anantha. Visit Ramana Maharshi Ashram.

January 10, Saturday. Visit Ramana Maharshi Ashram at the base of the mountain of Arunachala and the small hall where Ramana spent many years absorbed in Samadhi. Evening visit to the Tiruvannamalai Shiva temple. This region was sanctified by Shepherd Siddha Idai Kadar who resided here and herded his goats and cows around the mountain. In the evening worship in the Arunachalaswarar Temple where Idai Kadar experienced Svarupa Samadhi and Arunagirinathar, a disciple of Agastyar, composed many beautiful songs to Lord Murugan

January 11, Sunday, Ascend Arunachala mountain and explore the ancient meditation cave, Virupaksha Cave, named after a rishi whose body is enshrined within the cave. Meditate at Skanda Ashram where Ramana Maharshi lived for six years. Skanda Ashram was constructed by Kandaswami, a devoted disciple of Ramana. Practice sadhana in the caves.

January 12, Monday, Go around the mountain or climb to the summit.

January 13, Tuesday. Travel to Tanjore. In the afternoon, visit the Britheeswar temple, dedicated to Shiva, with the tallest temple tower in Asia. Meditate at the shrine of the Siddhar Karuvoorar. Stay one night at Hotel Oriental Towers.

January 14, Wednesday, travel 216 km (130 miles) to Palani. Visit the Palani Murugan shrine for darshan of Lord Dandaswamy, after climbing the 1,008 steps to the top of the hill. Meditate in the Samadhi shrine of Siddhar Boganathar. Visit the ashram of Boganathar's disciple Pulapani. . Boganathar was the guru of Babaji, and he established this temple and Samadhi shrine.

January 15, Thursday. Sadhana in Palani Visit the Pulapani ashram, founded by the disciple of Boganathar.

January 16, Friday. Travel to Coimbatore and stay at Isha Yoga Ashram for 2 nights. Founded by Satguru Jaggi Vasudev. Visit the unique Dhyana Mandir constructed without cement, do group sadhana and participate in the activities of the ashram.

January 17, Saturday. Sadhana at the Isha Yoga Ashram.

January 19, Monday late morning travel to Bangalore. Pilgrimage ends about 3 pm at the Bangalore airport. Departure to international destinations via Bangalore/Chennai as required. Or stay in Bangalore and visit Kriya Yoga Ashram in Bangalore.

COST, INDIA ASHRAM DONATION AND VISAS:

The total cost of the proposed pilgrimage from January 2-19, 2009 will be $4,200, up slightly in US$ because of the loss in value of the US dollar, as well as the increase in airfare and fuel cost.. This includes the cost of air and ground transportation and accommodations according to the above itinerary starting in Montreal or in New York City, JFK airport, as well as the flights inside India, and ayurvedic consultation and some therapy or rejuvenation treatments. It does not include the cost of airfare to and from Montreal or NYC. You should make your reservations and purchase your tickets for the connecting flights in Montreal yourself or by contacting our travel agent Nick De Mello, at “Voyages Le Passage” in Toronto at 1-877-279-3920 or 905-279-3920, fax: 905-272-1717, email: aerotours@on.aibn.com (where he usually is) or in Montreal, telephone 1-888-359-2203 or 450-861-5617 or fax 514-861-0267. He can get you cheaper fares.

As we have found that most persons vary in their meal preferences, it does not include most of your meals, which will probably average less than $10 per day. It does not include the fees for obtaining a visa for India. Participants must apply for a visa at the High Commissioner in the capital of respective country. Or, they may obtain the application forms from Nick at “Voyages Le Passage” then return them to him with their passport and two passport size photos and C$30.

Those persons who desire to stay longer than January 19, 2009, please let us know and we will have your ticket issued open-ended, unless you specify the date you wish to leave Chennai, in which case we will make your reservations. You may also make arrangements to return for a stay near our ashram in Bangalore

Persons living inside or outside North America who wish to be a part of this pilgrimage and who wish to make their own plane reservations between their home and Chennai India, may deduct the amount of the airfare between Montreal or NYC and Chennai, which is about US$2,000, The net cost in that case would be $US$4200 - 2,000 = US$2,200$ or its equivalent, for example in Euros: •1,550 or Cn$4,200 - 2,000 = Cn$2100. So persons travelling from Europe, who reserve and pay for their own plane tickets, must pay •1,550 for the tour to Kriya Yoga Publications. They may meet us in Chennai on the morning of Sunday January 4, 2009 at the Hotel Shelter.
